

Corporate Meal & Entertainment Policy

1. Purpose

This policy defines allowable meal and entertainment expenses for employees during business activities and travel.

2. Daily Meal Limits

Employees must stay within the approved meal reimbursement limits listed below.

Meal Type	Maximum Reimbursement
Breakfast	$20
Lunch	$35
Dinner	$75
Client Dinner	$150

3. Alcohol Policy

Alcoholic beverages are not reimbursable unless explicitly approved for client entertainment purposes.

4. Business Meals

Business meals with clients or partners must include a clear business purpose and attendee list.

5. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following are not reimbursable: luxury dining, minibar charges, personal meals for family members, and excessive tips.

6. Receipt Requirements

Receipts are required for all meal expenses above $25. Handwritten receipts are not accepted.

7. AI Compliance Monitoring

The company uses AI systems to detect unusual spending patterns, duplicate meal submissions, and policy violations.

8. Fraud Detection Examples

Potential fraud indicators include duplicate restaurant charges, unusually high tips, multiple dinners on the same date, and weekend entertainment expenses.

9. Approval Rules

Expenses above policy limits require manager approval before reimbursement.

10. Contact Information

Expense Support Team
Email: mealsupport@company.com